

Jerusalem, Jerusalem!

How often have I desired to gather your children together as a hen gathers her brood
under her wings

FIRST READING: Genesis 15:1-12, 17-18

After these things the word of the LORD came to Abram in a vision, "Do not be afraid, Abram, I am your shield; your reward shall be very great." <sup>2</sup>But Abram said, "O Lord GOD, what will you give me, for I continue childless, and the heir of my house is Eliezer of Damascus?" <sup>3</sup>And Abram said, "You have given me no offspring, and so a slave born in my house is to be my heir." <sup>4</sup>But the word of the LORD came to him, "This man shall not be your heir; no one but your very own issue shall be your heir." <sup>5</sup>He brought him outside and said, "Look toward heaven and count the stars, if you are able to count them." Then he said to him, "So shall your descendants be." <sup>6</sup>And he believed the LORD; and the LORD reckoned it to him as righteousness.

<sup>7</sup>Then he said to him, "I am the LORD who brought you from Ur of the Chaldeans, to give you this land to possess." <sup>8</sup>But he said, "O Lord GOD, how am I to know that I shall possess it?" <sup>9</sup>He said to him, "Bring me a heifer three years old, a female goat three years old, a ram three years old, a turtledove, and a young pigeon." <sup>10</sup>He brought him all these and cut them in two, laying each half over against the other; but he did not cut the birds in two. <sup>11</sup>And when birds of prey came down on the carcasses, Abram drove them away.

<sup>12</sup>As the sun was going down, a deep sleep fell upon Abram, and a deep and terrifying darkness descended upon him.

<sup>17</sup>When the sun had gone down and it was dark, a smoking fire pot and a flaming torch passed between these pieces. <sup>18</sup>On that day the LORD made a covenant with Abram, saying, "To your descendants I give this land, from the river of Egypt to the great river, the river Euphrates."

Psalm 27*SECOND READING: Philippians 3:17—4:1

Brothers and sisters, join in imitating me, and observe those who live according to the example you have in us. <sup>18</sup>For many live as enemies of the cross of Christ; I have often told you of them, and now I tell you even with tears. <sup>19</sup>Their end is destruction; their god is the belly; and their glory is in their shame; their minds are set on earthly things. <sup>20</sup>But our citizenship is in heaven, and it is from there that we are expecting a Savior, the Lord Jesus Christ. <sup>21</sup>He will transform the body of our humiliation that it may be conformed to the body of his glory, by the power that also enables him to make all things subject to himself. <sup>4:1</sup>Therefore, my brothers and sisters, whom I love and long for, my joy and crown, stand firm in the Lord in this way, my beloved.

Jesus' Sheltering Arms

It's a hard and ugly world out there. Every day there are new stories of greed and hypocrisy, violence, and abuse. All too often those stories touch your life in painful ways. You know far too much about living with heart disease and cancer, arthritis and HIV/AIDS. You know far too well the pain of lost jobs, divorce, addiction, and more.

Sadly, we add to the pain in this world. We cause pain to those around us through things done and left undone. We cause pain by things we say and by things we leave left unsaid. Not only do we cause pain, but we get hurt as well. The one we worship, this God we pray to, knows our suffering. When we suffer, God suffers. When we grieve, God grieves.

Rather than turn away from this pain, rather than abandon this world, God sent Jesus to live among us, to be one with us, and finally to die for us. We see the love of God for the world most clearly as Jesus stretches out his arms on the cross, embracing the whole world. Through the cross we see the fullness of God's mercy and love.

Luke's gospel reminds us that God's love looks like a loving mother placing herself between her children and all that might harm them. This is Jesus, wrapping his arms around us, shielding us with his body. As you worship today, look around and see that same protection. The church is Christ's body in the world, called to walk with you, support you, pray for you, and comfort you. The church, the body of Christ, cares for this pain-filled world, gathering all under God's wings, into God's merciful embrace.

GOSPEL: Luke 13:31-35

At that very hour some Pharisees came and said to Jesus, "Get away from here, for Herod wants to kill you." <sup>32</sup>He said to them, "Go and tell that fox for me, 'Listen, I am casting out demons and performing cures today and tomorrow, and on the third day I finish my work. <sup>33</sup>Yet today, tomorrow, and the next day I must be on my way, because it is impossible for a prophet to be killed outside of Jerusalem.' <sup>34</sup>Jerusalem, Jerusalem, the city that kills the prophets and stones those who are sent to it! How often have I desired to gather your children together as a hen gathers her brood under her wings, and you were not willing! <sup>35</sup>See, your house is left to you. And I tell you, you will not see me until the time comes when you say, 'Blessed is the one who comes in the name of the Lord.' "
