DECEMBER, 2010

From the Pastor

Another mark of a disciple is worship. A follower of Christ is one who worships...worships the Father who created, the Son who redeems and the Holy Spirit who guides us in our daily living. This act of worshipping God is what draws us together into a community of faith. Each of us brings his or her unique gifts and talents and personality into the community. There may be no other place where this set of individuals would come together, not at work, not in our volunteer organizations and not even among our friends. But we gather for the common purpose of worshipping this God who loves us and has revealed that love in the life, death and resurrection of Jesus Christ, our Savior.

In order to facilitate this act of adoration and worship, we have organized the time we spend together. We always gather on Sunday, the first day of the week, the day Christ rose from the grave. Every week we gather...but we gather at other times too. Christians have, throughout the centuries, gathered for prayer and worship hourly, daily, weekly, monthly, seasonal, annually. We have organized our time in seasons, (Advent, Christmas, Epiphany, Lent, Easter and Pentecost.) and in hours (Morning and Evening Prayer, Prayer at the Close of the Day). From Advent through Easter, we hear and learn about the life of Jesus Christ. During the long Pentecost season, we hear and learn about what Jesus taught us as disciples and how we are to live in the world and share the good news.

Each season brings its own focus to our worship. What we hear, speak, sing and pray about changes throughout the year. In this way, we are exposed to the many voices with which God would speak to us. Advent and Lent are times when we are preparing ourselves to celebrate the great festivals of Christmas and Easter. This is why we do not sing about the birth of Christ or about his resurrection from the dead before the time of celebration. We need to hear God speaking to us while we wait and prepare for those wonderful and mysterious celebrations.

We organize our time together on Sundays also. We begin worship by gathering together to confess our sins and ask for God's forgiveness, to sing songs of praise so that we might focus our attention of God and end with a prayer that gathers our thoughts and sets the tone for the day's worship. Next we focus on Scripture, the word of God that shapes and forms our lives together. We hear from the ancient Hebrew texts, God's word of grace and law and we respond with a psalm. Then we hear from the early church in the second reading, their concerns and issues that help us focus on what God would have us do today. Finally we hear the life story of Jesus whom we follow and we learn from his life and words what he would have us do in our life of faith. Then we share the holy supper together, where we encounter the risen Christ in bread and wine, where we are reminded of how much God loves us by raising Jesus from the dead. Finally, nourished by God's word and the shared meal, we are sent out into the world to share this powerful message we have just experienced with the world.

Gathered together through the Holy Spirit to hear God's word and share in the holy meal, then sent into the world to share God's love, that is the pattern for our Sunday worship. In that holy time and space, we encounter the risen Christ, and in that encounter we learn and follow as his disciples.

Your fellow servant in Christ,
Pastor Scott

God's Blessings to all –

Where did the year go? Here we are about to start another Advent Season and it seems as though we just started the new year.

This would be a good opportunity to talk about some things that we neglected during the year and some things that are on the calendar yet to come.

I can't remember if we ever designated an area in the newsletter welcoming new members and I know that I did not acknowledge them in my articles, so let me do so now. We wish a warm welcome to: Cathy and John Jancosek, Jane Lake, Cindy Holley and Monica Hawkins. Thank you all for allowing us to be your church home. There will be a new member profile section in the next newsletter.

The month of December is always important in the life of our church. We celebrate the birth of our Savior without whom there would be no Faith Lutheran Church. We also deal with the very important business of setting the budget for the coming year. To accomplish this, your Council has put together a tentative budget which we as a congregation will examine, ask questions about and ultimately vote on. The proposed budget will be handed out to members on Sunday, December 5 and discussed and voted on after worship on Sunday, December 12. On that day, the entire Council will be available to answer questions about their individual areas of responsibility. Let us all enter this process praying that God will use us and our resources to further His kingdom here on earth.

Another important happening for our church is that Pastor Scott and Mike Bugh will be serving on the local Thrivent Board. This board does wonderful work in the dispersing of monies from Thrivent Financial to worthy causes in our community. I thank them both for consenting to do this important job.

Speaking of Thrivent, we have just learned that they have changed the way they give money to individual churches. They now donate funds by letting folks that have insurance or assets with them designate where they would like their portion to go. It is important to Faith Lutheran that anybody who qualifies for this benefit take advantage of it. Kathy Hayes has brochures and more information about this opportunity to steer some funds towards activities here at Faith. If you do any business with Thrivent Financial, please check into this benefit.

Please remember our sick and shut-ins, especially during this Holiday season. A card, phone call, or visit would be very welcome.

Peg and I will be traveling to Denver once again this year to celebrate the birth of our Savior with our daughter and her children. Our thoughts will be with you, our Faith family, as we remember how God has blessed us with the birth of His Son. Have a wonderful Christmas and we will see you in the New Year.

Yours in Christ,

Lyle

OWLS*NANCY FALKENSTEIN

Thanks to Barb Morris Nix, Dennis Johnson, Dorothy and Gordon McCall and Jim and Nancy Vogt for being chauffeurs for Catherine Pittman, Ken Steward, Billie Williams, Dorothy Clerici and Norma Boehme so that we could enjoy an early dinner at The Overlook in late October. Thanks to Jim and Nancy Falkenstein for delivering dessert to Art and Edwina Andregg. It was an overcast day brightened by the caring and fellowship shared on that special occasion.

Virginia and Dick Klemens invite you to visit the Jeff Public Library to see some of their Santas on display there. This is the 4th year we've been invited to decorate the display case for the holidays.

Jim and Nancy Vogt will be welcoming us to their home on December 18th for a Christmas gathering. Watch for details of time and plans for the afternoon/evening.

Thanks to the OWLS for providing hams for the baskets Faith is putting together for families who have applied to CLM for food and help over the holidays. Sue Neathamer and Virginia Klemens are accepting cash donations to support the Center in this important Christmas project. Last year over 600 food baskets were delivered for Christmas.

Hopefully Edwina Andregg has recovered from several recent physical setbacks and returned home to Marysville by the time this newsletter arrives there. Remember Art and Edwina in your prayers.

Prayers also go to Fammie and Ed Peter as Fammie cares for her sister Lu in Oregon who is terminally ill with cancer. Remember Fammie and her family in your prayers.

Best wishes to Jim and Nancy Falkenstein, snowbirds flown south for the winter. Didn't know OWLS did that.

Remember to call people you miss in church and visit or call on those in hospitals, rehab facilities, nursing homes or homebound.

Contact Dick and Virginia (288-8809) or Arlys and Dennis (944-2219) with program or project ideas.

Give a Hoot for the OWLS!

CHRISTIAN EDUCATION*CAROL TAYLOR*Weekday Church School

The Weekday children would like to invite their parents and Faith members to their annual Christmas program on December 16th at 10:00 am at Faith Lutheran church. If you love to see little ones acting out their faith, be sure and come and share this Thursday morning with your pre-school. The plays will be followed by a Birthday Party for Baby Jesus in the Emma Schoen Hall.

The children will present their versions of the Christmas story. Each age level will present a play that will involve all of the children in the class. They will also sing several songs and the Pre-K class will perform two Christmas carols using bells.

December 16 will be the last day of school in 2010. Classes will resume on January 4.

The children are busy making gifts for their parents, ornaments for the Christmas tree, and learning about the birth of Jesus. They know that God sent Jesus to us as the very first Christmas gift. Because Christmas is His birthday, people celebrate His birthday by giving each other gifts on Christmas. Parents will bring several birthday cakes to the party so that Jesus will have a birthday cake and party for His special day.

We continue to get calls looking for places in our school. Both classes have remained steady in attendance so no new children have been brought into the program. Lisa Peter and Kate Scott have offered to help with our substitute needs. Thanks to both of you. With most of the teachers being retired and finally having the freedom to travel, we will be keeping you busy with calls for help. Thanks also to Judy Diekhof, Arlys Johnson, and Virginia Klemens who also help when needed.

We wish all of you a very special Christmas Day.

General Christian Education News

The Christian education team is sponsoring two family events for the Christmas season.

On November 28th we will host a totally pitch-in Family night supper, worship and craft time. Dinner begins at 6:00pm, worship- conducted by Pastor and the children- will be at 6:45 and crafts tables will be set up to help you make symbols to hang on the Jessie tree you will construct for your home and family devotion for the season of Advent.

We would love to have you join with your church family and the children of the congregation as you begin your celebration of the new church year with the first Sunday of Advent. Join us on the Sunday evening after Thanksgiving. This is the time to bring your favorite, kid friendly, supper food. Please sign up on the chart in the Narthex so that we do not have 25 dishes of Mac and Cheese, but instead a variety of meats, salads, and desserts.

CHRISTIAN EDUCATION, CONT.*CAROL TAYLOR

On the fourth Sunday of Advent , Dec. 19, at 6:00 pm we will again sponsor a pitch in dinner. This time bring your favorite fancier foods as we have Christmas dinner together before the Christmas Program. This year it is the pre-school and elementary children's turn to present the Christmas story to you. Dinner will again be at 6:00pm and then we will all go into the sanctuary for the children's version of the greatest story ever told. Come join with them and celebrate the best Christmas gift ever given as you watch their play and listen and sing with them your favorite Christmas carols. What can be more meaning full at this time of year that a group of small Christians singing Away in a Manger, and watching them tell the story of Jesus birth.

We hope to see you at both of these dinners and fellowship opportunities.

Christian Education Committee Meeting. Calling all Sunday school teachers and anyone interested in Christian education or helping to plan the Christmas program for Dec. 19th. All are welcome. Monday evening, Dec. 6th @ 7:00pm

See you there.

We just want to give the 5 young women who are teaching our children during Children Church at BIG THANK YOU. They have been putting a lot of preparation into their lessons and the children seem to really be enjoying coming to Sunday School, If you have a pre-schooler or elementary student who hasn't yet been a part of this please bring them with you on Sunday morning to church. This includes a grandchild, a neighbor, or go find a kid in your neighborhood. Advent is the time of new beginnings. It is the New Year's day in the church year. It is a good time to resolve that this child will know the heroes and stories of the Bible, and understand God's great love for us as His created children. There are 3 different activities for all children ages 3 years through 5th grade. They go to class after the children's sermon and return in time to receive communion with their family. The children need this educational information before they begin confirmation so that when references are made to Bible characters as examples of obeying the Ten Commandments or understanding our Creed, they understand the connection between their lives and the lessons they have heard and read.

THANK-YOU Sandy Neathamer, Megan Holman, Beth Wright, Whitney Hayes and Kristina Peter for your time and talent that is being used for God and these younger children. You truly are an example of God's work – Our Hands.

The confirmation class will no longer meet at 9:15 for Sunday school.

Due to family scheduling it has been impossible for them to be there consistently, therefore parents, teachers, and youth decided to meet for Sunday school before confirmation on Wednesday evening. They will meet from 6:30 -8:30. Old Testament history will be the topic from 6:30 -7:15 and Confirmation studies, Ten Commandments, will be studied from 7:15-8:30.

Peer Ministry

Youth of South Central Conference

Faith will host the youth of the South Central Conference on December 4, from 9:00am to 5:00pm. The group will consist of students from all area Lutheran churches. This will be a day of training for the youth in how to minister to their fellow students. We will discuss how to meet and greet a new friend, how to welcome people into a group, how to be a good listener when someone needs to talk and when the person's problem is more than they can or do feel comfortable with helping, how and when to get someone else involved. Kristina Peter is going to attend for sure. This is her second year and she will complete the program and participate in the graduation service at 4:30pm that Saturday. This is a nationally known program for leadership training for youth. We would love to see as many of Faith's youth as possible at this gathering.

YOUTH NEWS

KRISTINA PETER

News from the end of October; the youth had a couple service projects as well as a night of fun. The youth hosted the annual Halloween party for the little kids. This year the turnout wasn't as great as we've had in the past. We normally have the kids split into age groups but we only had nine kids this year so we combined them into one group. Since this year didn't seem to work out we are planning on trying Truck and Treat next year. This is where people decorate their trunks and hand out candy as kids come by. The youth followed this with having our lock-in. We too had only nine people. We went to Blackiston Mill and played two games of glow bowling. Then we came back to church and watched movies and crashed. In November, the youth helped with the Turkey dinner and raised over $500.

This month in December, the youth have a few events. On the 4th we are hosting Peer Ministry. This is a program that teaches youth how to be peer leaders. It's from 9 am to 5 pm. At 4:30 pm the second years are being dedicated as peer ministers. From our church I, Kristina Peter, will be confirmed. On the 12th the youth are wrapping angel tree presents then going to Iceland for ice skating. At this time the youth will be placing the final orders for shirts. The youth are making shirts through Whitney's work and we will have long and short sleeve shirts. These will be available to order soon. Half of the money we raise is going to the youth traveling to New Orleans in 2012 and the other half is going to Souper Bowl. The shirts should be in on Super Bowl Sunday.

WELCA will be having our cookie swap, lunch and meeting at 10:00 am on Saturday, December the 4th. Ladies are asked to bring at least 2 dozen Christmas cookies and a brunch item to share. After our business meeting we will eat and make up the boxes of cookies. The cookies we have left we will all get to share. This is a good chance for our women's group to get together for fellowship, share some of our baked goodies and help make important decisions concerning our treasures. We do have monies in our treasury that need to be put to good use in our church. We also will hear about some of the events we have planned for the coming year. Hope to see many of you on Saturday, December the 4th.

Happy Holidays from your local Daisy Troop 1243!

KATE SCOTT

We have been very busy this fall as you all may know. We kicked off our troop year with a beautiful Investiture Ceremony at which time we had 7 registered Girl Scouts. Our own Daisy-bridged-to-Brownies Kayleigh Gernand was our flag bearer and Jessie Jones led the ceremonial Girl Scout Promise. We now have 9 registered girls and are actively participating in the Journey “Welcome to the Daisy Flower Garden.”

We took our first field trip to the Diekhoff home in November, where the girls got a tour of the castle grounds and entertainment with hand-crafted puzzles, gardening tips and live music performed by the queen herself! (Thank you Judy and Dan!)

Our troop participated in the Girl Scouts Fall Product sale and raised $180 to purchase uniforms for new members. Thank you for everyone who purchased items from Jessie and Kayleigh!

On December 11th we are taking our second field trip! The Girl Scout Metro Council of Kentuckiana in Louisville is hosting a “Princess Party” where the girls can dress up in their finest princess gowns and join the Metro staff in a girly princess tea party with games and activities sure to please their inner princesses!

Also on the 11th our Area GS Service Unit is sponsoring a Holiday Bazaar at Speed Memorial Church, 328 US HWY 31 in Sellersburg from 9 am to 3 pm. Mom and I will have a craft booth set up selling homemade items and dream-sickle fudge along with 20 other booths with goodies and surprises to discover. There is sure to be something for everyone! Money earned by GS booths goes directly to the troops and all booth rental funds will be used to support a Salvation Army Angel Tree family adopted by the Service Unit. The NEW 103.1 radio station will broadcast there from noon to 1:00pm and there will be a kids table with crafts for the children.

Thank you all for your continued support and Merry Christmas from the Daisy Girl Scouts!
